

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA FOR FLC APPLICATIONS 2020

Title of the project
Partner organization
Administrative assessment / Compulsory requirements
Criteria	Assessment	Comments
Compulsory requirements	Pass or fail
Application arrived in time.
Application is signed.
Applicant is a registered organisation or company.
Applicant is an FLC eligible organization or company.
Application includes an Application form (summary) with a draft budget and relevant CV(s).
Project outcomes contribute to the expected outcome of the FLC Programme's priority areas
Activities to be funded are at least Human Rights sensitive.
Summary: PASS in ALL items above?		(If the application does not pass in all the items above, the Embassy doesn't have to continue for the technical assessment)
Technical assessment
Assessment criteria for scoring	Comments
Project expected results are clearly defined, measurable and achievable.
Project activities are relevant, realistic and contribute to the desired results.
Project takes into account sustainability.

Project management and/or key persons are adequate for the desired outputs.
Applicant has previous experience of project management.
Applicant has previous experience in the same sector/theme.
Project beneficiaries have participated in the preparation and design of the project.
The budget is clear, detailed, and includes all the relevant items.
The budget is reasonable and in line with the activities.
The unit costs for the personnel are clearly defined and the total costs are acceptable
Project applies Human Rights Based Approach and takes Cross-Cutting Objectives into consideration (checklist below).

Assessment of the Human Rights Based Approach (HRBA) and Cross-Cutting Objectives (CCOs)

Issues	Yes	No	Comments
Has it been assured in the application that the project does not have negative effects on Human Rights or contribute to discriminatory structures, norms and practices?
Have Human Rights been integrated in the project's results and activities?
Does the project aim at strengthening Human Rights as part of the expected results?
Does the application indicate the integration of the Human Rights principles (universality, equality / non-discrimination, participation / inclusion, and accountability and transparency) in planning, implementation and monitoring of the project?

Does the project aim at strengthening capacities of the beneficiaries as a part of the expected results?
Have barriers for participation, inclusion and empowerment of project beneficiaries been taken in account in the project design?
Has the gender equality been addressed in the project design?
Has the principle of non-discrimination been addressed in the project design?
Has the climate resilience been addressed in the project design?
Has the approach of low emission development been addressed in the project design?
Final Comments			